A New Year Begins

January 2014

Dear Charles,

Urgent personal matters delayed my work on this newsletter, but here it is at the start of a promising new year. The quotation below was shown to me by a family member, and I offer it forward to the family of Pacific Rim Sculptors:

*There is something infinitely healing in the repeated refrains of nature ~ the assurance that dawn comes after night,
and spring after the winter.*

Rachel Carson (1907 - 1964)

The party, complete with abundant, delicious snacks, was attended by a number of members and guests.

Lynne Todaro and Danielle Fafchamps

Eighteen members brought small sculptures or photos of pieces for the pop-up art show. The pieces were set on numbered pedestals, and each attendee was invited to ask 5 questions of each other attendee in an effort to identify who brought which piece. It was a great way to get to know each other and, of course, the winners received prizes.

It was a festive and fun party. If you missed it, check out the photos, and take heart: Attendees liked it so much they want to repeat the event next year! Special thanks to Roger Smith, who contributed to this article!

Exhibitions Committee: Scheduled Shows

The Exhibition Committee urges you to plan your submissions for upcoming shows:

- Richmond Art Center, Richmond; June 14 - August 15, 2014: This show will have two spaces: a large outdoor patio, perfect for large outdoor sculpture, and a long indoor gallery with a wall of windows looking onto the patio space, which is perfect for smaller or delicate sculptures. Submission deadline is pending.
- Art Ark Gallery, San Jose; October 2014. Details will be provided in the near future.

Proposals for several more shows are in active development by our Exhibitions Committee. If you would like to volunteer, contact Susan Peterson for more information.

ISC Conference 2013, Miami

Stud #4, by Lynne Todaro

Lynne Todaro, Cynthia Handel, and Cynthia Siegel attended Art Basel Miami, the ISC Conference, and also participated in the ISC Makers and Shapers show. Lynne Todaro met with ISC Executive Director, Johannah Hutchison and discussed a possible future ISC Conference in the San Francisco Bay Area.
